LAST EDITION.

LATE WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Democratic House Caucus.

COMMITTEES, APPOINTMENTS, ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14--The result of the House Democratic caucus was the au- thorization to Mr. Lamar, the chairman, to appoint a committee of thirteen, who shall prepare the business to be sub- mitted to a future caucus, and also to appoint a committee of six members of the House and three citizens of the Dis- trict, who shall constitute a local Con- gressional Committee.

The question of appointments to sub- ordinate positions in the House was dis- cussed, but it was finally determined to leave the whole matter with a commit- tee of three, alone authorized; but the understanding is that no definite changes are to be made immediately.

The most important appointment made yesterday was that of Hon. Green Adams, of Kentucky, Clerk of the House. Mr. Adams formerly represented the Lexington (Ky.) District in Congress, and was Auditor in the Post-office De- partment under Mr. Lincoln's adminis- tration.

Speaker Kerr does not expect to an- nounce his committees until after the holidays. An exception will probably be made in the Committee on Elections, in view of the election contested cases.

A son of Senator Gordon, of Georgia, was tendered a position under the Door- keeper of the House, but his father would not permit him to accept it.

It has been a custom here for Senators to appoint their sons as clerks to their Committees, &c., but Senator Gordon is evidently of the opinion that there should be a reform in this respect.

The Attorney General confirmed the appointment of Mr. Broadhead to be As- sistant Attorney General to assist in the prosecution of the whisky ring operators at St. Louis.

The War Department has not yet taken action on the communication of General Sheridan, relative to the ad- journment of the Court of Inquiry, be- yond acknowledging its acceptance. A reply will probably be sent to-day.

NEW YORK.

Captured and Released--Opinion of Mr. Henderson's Removal--Must Hang--Stanley's Discoveries.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14--J. Nicholson, father of Nicholson the absconding cas- hie of the Bank of Commerce, Mon- treal, and who absented himself at the same time with his son, was arrested at the depot of the Penn- sylvania railroad, and conveyed to the First precinct Station-house. Mr. Har- per, President of the Commercial Bank of Montreal, Branch in this city, declined to prosecute on the ground that negotia- tions are now pending which will result in a settlement this week. Mr. Nichol- son was then discharged.

The Post's Washington special says a very large number of Republican Sena- tors and Representatives have called upon Attorney General Pierpont, and assured him of their approval of the removal of Ex- Senator Henderson at St. Louis. So far not a single Republican has expressed to the Attorney General dissatisfaction with the cause of the Administration in this matter.

The motion for a stay of proceedings in the case of Ellis and Weston, the ne- gro murderers now in the Tombs, was denied by the Supreme Court. At a meet- ing of the Geographical Society last night Judge Daley delivered an address on Stanley's African Explorations, eulogiz- ing his enterprise and courage. Bayard Taylor spoke on the same subject.

TWEED, GENET, AND THE RINGS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14--The mystery surrounding the flight of Wm. M. Tweed continues to be impenetrable to the police authorities, but it is said by persons conversant with the working of the Tweed Ring that his appearance will not be long delayed, provided certain pend- ing negotiations are successful, or if Chas. O'Connor, the lawyer, should sur- vive his present illness. Many believe that Tweed has not left the city, but through friends is negotiating a settle- ment of the suit against him.

It is said O'Connor proposed a settle- ment several months ago, of all King suits against Sweeney, Connolly, Tweed, Cowan and others. This was opposed by Peckham & Barlow, the people's law- yers, and Tweed's counsel were not averse to continued litigation.

Finally Tweed took matters into his own hands, and the settlement of the suit against King members was about to be concluded, when O'Connor was taken sick, and it was reported that he was on his death-bed. Tweed believed O'Connor's death would cut off all chances for a settlement, and at once arranged the escape to force the authorities to a settle- ment. It is believed Tweed and Genet are together within thirty hours ride of New York, awaiting the result of O'Connor's sickness. It is said the Ring members agreed to give $40,000 to settle the suit, and it is also stated that Genet was in this city last week and signed deeds of importance.

CHICAGO.

WHISKY, POLITICS AND SUCH.

CHICAGO, Dec. 14--Hon. Buford Wil- son arrived yesterday, and has been in consultation with the federal officers in regard to the whisky cases all day. He will take no part in the approaching whisky trials here, and will leave for St. Louis at once.

General Babcock is still in the city, as is also his counsel, Judge Kram, of St. Louis, and the pair are busily engaged preparing for the trial. Marshal Camp- bell says the General will probably go to Washington before his presence is de- sired at St. Louis, and that he is in the best of spirits.

The Babcock Court of Inquiry met at the Palmer House at noon, but trans- acted no business beyond the mere formality of a call to order an adjourn- ment.

District Attorney Bangs has not yet made his appearance, and speculation is busy with his probable ability to grapple with the talent employed by the Whisky Ring. The conclusion is growing among those in position to know, including Revenue Agents and Secret Service men, that there is a ring of rottenness, alarming power and official elevation here that has thus far defied detection of a sufficiently tangible character to warrant indictments, but the secret pow- ers of the Government are scenting the track of the guilty men. Parties who ought to know admit that the call- ing of another Grand Jury in January is not improbable. That this summoning of a new inquisition would cause the profound sensation in high political circles there is positive proof.

The Republican Convention of the Seventh Illinois Supreme Court Dis- trict, met in this city and nominated Hon. H. B. Hurd for the Supreme Court, vice Judge McAllister, resigned.

ST. LOUIS.

Crooked Whisky and Other Crookedness.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 14--There was little of interest in the whisky cases yester- day. Babcock, who was expected, did not put in an appearance. Col. Dyer presented his bond, also that of Munn in the sum of $7,000, taken before Judge Blodget, at Chicago, to be present in St. Louis, whenever they should be required. The cases of McKee and McGru were continued to the January term. Hon. D. W. Voorhees appeared for the defend- ants.

Sam'l B. Knoeph, a baker, suicided by shooting yesterday.

The case of W. B. Miller, charged with the murder of Geehan, the barber, was called in the Criminal Court and con- tinued to Wednesday.

Late Foreign News.

RE-ENFORCING--THE CANAL.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 14--The Gov- ernment has ordered a levy of 100,000 men besides a contribution from Egypt of $2,000.

The Government has informed the Suez Canal Company that it considers the management of the canal satisfac- tory, and has no intention to interfere.

ALL REPUBLICANS.

PARIS, Dec. 14--Nine Senators for life were elected by the Assembly yester- day, and all are Republicans.

In a Small Way.

HARTFORD, Ct., Dec. 14--A Wash- ington special says U. S. Marshall Carroll, of Connecticut, is charged with defraud- ing the Government by charging the Government with witness fees in excess of the amount actually paid to witnesses.

Attorney General Pierpont has re- ferred the matter to Judge Shipman, of Hartford, for investigation.

The Eagle Labeled--Deceased.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 14--In the libel suits of Henry C. Bowen against the Brooklyn Eagle, Judge Reynolds granted the motion appointing a com- missioner to go to Connecticut to take the evidence of Mr. Pierson, who is said to have been connected with the Captain Kidd Salvage Company.

The death was announced yesterday of Mrs. Margaret Astor Chandler, wife of Hon. John W. Chandler, of New York, ex-member of Congress. She was a granddaughter of the late Wm. B. Astor, and her children were left large bequests when he died lately.

Fires.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14--A fire occurred last night at 523 Water street, and ex- tended to 275 Cherry street, adjoining. Vantile & Co., lampblack manufacturers, lost $20,000 on stock. Building damaged $10,000; partly insured.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Dec. 14--A large fire is reported raging in Avon, N. Y. A dispatch has been received here ask- ing for assistance, and two engines have been sent to Avon.

It is reported that the railroad depot has been burned down, and that the telegraph wires are also burned, thus cut- ting off communication with this city. The buildings in the vicinity of Avon are also destroyed. The loss will be heavy.

FLASHES.

Sixteen prisoners escaped from the Henderson county, Ky., Jail.

Supervisor Munn, of Illinois, indicted for revenue frauds, has given bonds in $10,000.

The Prince of Wales arrived at Mad- ras yesterday, and was enthusiastically received.

The house of George Coup, the show- man, with all its contents, at Washing- ton, Ind., burned yesterday.

Oluf Stevens, Swedish Envoy Ex- traordinary and Minister Plenipotenti- ary at Washington, is dead.

Burbank, the convicted Milwaukee re- venue robber, has given bail in $5,000, and been released to await sentence.

Geo. H. Pendleton made a speech and was serenaded and named for the Presi- dency in Atlanta, Ga., Monday night.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad Company has been sued for $500,000 back taxes due the Government.

A colored woman named Laparte has recovered $100 damages of the St. Louis, L. M. and S. Railway, for refusing her a seat in the ladies' car.

Commodore Vanderbilt has made an additional donation of $100,000 to the Vanderbilt University at Nashville, which makes $700,000 in all.

Bishop Simpson has expressed no opinion on the third-term question, and does not favor attempts to connect the Church with political nominations.

The Citizens' ticket in Boston yester- day nominated Samuel C. Cobb for Mayor, and eight Republican and four Democratic Aldermen. It is the same as the bolting Democratic ticket.

The millers of the Northwest are hold- ing a Convention in Chicago, to endeavor to secure better terms from the rail- roads for their shipments East. The railroad magnates hold a meeting to-day to advance the rates.

Concerning that $30,000 race in San Francisco, it is now said that the race will come off Christmas, weather per- mitting. The horses are reported in good condition except Idlewild and Grinstead. The former will not run. Foster, coming from Oregon, takes his place. Grinstead will no doubt be all right in time for the race. Probably not less than six horses will start.

"Can you spell donkey with one let- ter?" asked a silly young man of a bright girl. "Yes," she answered; "u."

Terse Telegrams.

FREEDOM, Pa., Dec. 14--A fire
here last night destroyed Mueller's grist-mill and two adjoining buildings. Loss $15,000.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14--J. P. Neare was last night elected President of the Union League. Nearly one thousand votes were cast.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14--Adolph Eringer, attorney for the German Up-town Sav- ings Bank, was arrested to-day on a charge of collecting $30,000 which he failed to turn over to the bank, thus causing its failure.

Railroad Strike.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.

CHILLICOTHE, Dec. 14--The railroad hands near Circleville, on the Soloto Val- ley railroad, struck to-day on account of the non-payment of wages.

In Council last night a proposition of H. P. Clough & Co., of Middletown, O., to erect Holly Water-works, was lost by one vote.
